

If corporate and local radio were doing their job well I would not be an XM Customer. Don't restrict my only reliable source for news, weather and other content. Let the consumers decide where they get their news from!